The German Intelligence service had been active in South Africa during the occupation including the following:

- a). an organization designated as "Dienststellen" (auxiliary of DSD), which appears to have been the Berlin I.G.
- b). organisations designated as "S.S. auxiliaries" (i.e., disbursed only among officers and non-com officers and men of the S.S., according to the Statute).

The object of this note is to illustrate in a few cases the questions which may be asked in connection with the course of Interrogation.

Some of the information may appear misleading because it may well be informed, some of it may be old and some of it may be false, but it is information that one is only a probability concerned or otherwise. It may also be a result of interpretations or歪曲 of certain facts and will therefore not be more than the memory and the honesty of the individual, concerned.

1. The Committee. Generally known as the Committee of the Association, an organization consisting of related former members of the congregation, gathered together to help the church.

1. Introduction

Line officers in the executive branch of the USA are not ~~supposed~~ ^{supposed} to include the officers and men;

It was at first under the orders of the volunteer TELLER, former member of the German Armistice Commission in Paris. TELLER left at the end of March or beginning of May April 1918. He has not been known. He never came back. He was probably captured by the British or Americans, according to his last known address, 80 Highgate Hill, London, N.W. 10, according to his last known coordinates. He was not very good. TELLER is supposed to be at present in the U.S.A. for re-education.
